

INVEST IN YOURSELF

Finance students benefit from a new, state-of-the-art trading room that replicates those used by Wall Street investment firms and includes Bloomberg terminals and scrolling stock tickers.

Master of Science in Finance

The Florida State University Master of Science in Finance program (MSF) in the College of Business is a full-time, three-semester program that provides students with the foundation required to compete for a wide range of desirable positions and to embark on a successful career in finance. The integration of financial theory with real-world practices and numerous hands-on applications facilitates the mastering of the concepts, analytical techniques and perspectives necessary for sound financial decision making.

A dedicated faculty rich in academic and industry experience, small class sizes, a diverse group of carefully selected peers, a student-managed investment fund in excess of $1.6 million and numerous networking opportunities with industry professionals ensure the MSF Program at Florida State University is a rewarding experience.

- Application deadline: April 1
- Three semesters to complete
- Program begins every summer (Summer C session)
- Competitive awards for financial assistance
- Classes taught by internationally known scholars
- Accredited by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB)

- MAN 5716 - Economic and Business Conditions Analysis (3 hrs)
- REE 5305 - Real Estate Investments (3 hrs)

Note: FIN 5935 is a special topics course with a new focus each semester.

Prerequisites

All MSF applicants must complete specific business foundation courses prior to enrollment in the MSF program. Minimum prerequisites include Financial Accounting (ACG 2021 or its equivalent), an introductory course in Financial Management (FIN 3403 or its equivalent), Investments (FIN 4504 or its equivalent), and Problems in Financial Management (FIN 4424 or its equivalent). All students without work experience are encouraged to have completed an internship prior to entering the program.

Please note: Program requirements are subject to change.

Cost of degree

FSU's MSF program follows tuition rates for graduate students established the university. For a complete list of current estimated costs, see business.fsu.edu/MSF.

Admission guidelines

Admission to the MSF program is highly competitive and based on the academic and professional credentials of the applicant pool. The College of Business generally recommends an undergraduate GPA of at least 3.0 overall and 3.4 for upper-division courses and a minimum total score of 530 on the GMAT. The average GMAT score is over 600 for admitted students.

Given the competitive nature of the program, it is likely that most who are admitted to the program will have credentials considerably above the specified minimums.
