

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dedman School of Hospitality
Florida State University

Dedman School of Hospitality at Florida State University Announces First Annual “North Florida Wine and Food Festival”

The Dedman School of Hospitality in the College of Business at Florida State University announces a late summer weekend filled with fine wine and delicious foods. Proceeds from this “1st Annual” event, named the “North Florida Wine and Food Festival”, will be used to support FSU Dedman School of Hospitality’s Wine Education programs.

On Saturday night, August 29 at 7 p.m. in the Tucker Banquet Room at the Tallahassee Automobile Museum, the School will host a 5 course Winemaker’s Dinner limited to 80 persons at $125 per guest. Wenté Vineyards estate wines from California will be featured. Winery owner Phil Wenté will be present to discuss his family’s wines and history. Accompanying the wines will be deliciously-prepared food courses from Chef Jim Koenigsberg of the Dedman School of Hospitality.

On Sunday afternoon, August 30 from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m., the spacious Tallahassee Automobile Museum’s 16,500 square foot Grand Ballroom will be the site for the North Florida Wine and Food Festival’s tasting event. Over 150 fine wines will be featured by wine professionals accompanied by deliciously- prepared foods donated by 25 of Tallahassee’s most popular restaurant chefs and general managers. There will also be a silent auction with many attractive items for bid. The Tallahassee Automobile Museum is offering a reduced rate for guests interested in visiting vintage automobiles and other collectibles. Tickets are $40 in advance, available for purchase on-line, and $50 at the door the day of the event.

Where: Tallahassee Automobile Museum (both events)

When: Saturday, August 29 @ 7 p.m. and Sunday, August 30 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Costs: Winemaker’s Dinner - $125.00pp – Table of 8 - $925.00

Grand Tasting Event - $40.00 in advance, $50.00 at the Door

To order tickets and view more information, go to: www.winefoodfest.com