NAPSLO Announces Summer Internship Program – Deadline December 1st

We ask that you please share the enclosed information with your students. We encourage students to apply on-line at www.napslo.org.

Please encourage your students to apply today to one of the most prestigious internship programs. Our program is designed for students looking for an exciting career opportunity in one of the fastest growing and most dynamic segments of the Property & Casualty insurance industry.

The National Association of Professional Surplus Lines Offices, Ltd. (NAPSLO) is offering summer internships for qualified college juniors and seniors interested in a career in the surplus lines/specialty market. Many former interns who have participated in this program in the past five years are currently employed in the insurance industry, and nearly 71% enjoy a rewarding career in this unique market segment.

Selected interns will spend five weeks with a surplus lines/specialty insurance company followed by four weeks with a wholesale broker/general agent. NAPSLO provides transportation to and from the host locations, pays housing costs, as well as a stipend to cover incidental expenses. The host firms also provide a competitive salary.

Based on performance, one intern will be awarded a three week summer internship with a Lloyd's of London broker during the following summer.

We are enclosing an advertising poster that we ask you to display in a prominent area. This poster provides further information about the program, as well as instructions on how to apply. Please make copies of the enclosed Application and/or General Fact Sheet for distribution to interested students. In addition, information on the internship and applications are available online at www.napslo.org.

The deadline to return applications is December 1, 2007. In addition to the application, students must submit a copy of their college transcript, two letters of recommendation, and their resume. If you would like additional information about NAPSLO or its internship program, please contact Jennifer Hague, Communications Specialist at the NAPSLO office.

Thank you very much for your interest in our Internship Program. We sincerely hope that many of your students will take advantage of this excellent opportunity.

Sincerely,

Tim Makowski
